Accidents can happen unexpectedly, even if your child is fully potty-trained. Should your child have an accident, soiled clothing will be sent home and must be replaced by the next school day. Extra clothing must also be updated occasionally to ensure that the items fit properly and are weather appropriate.

We do ask that parents be careful in selecting themed backpacks and lunch boxes, as some may be inappropriate for preschool (rock stars and cartoon characters for older children). Preschool cartoon characters are OK.

Please do not purchase backpacks that are shaped like suitcases, or those that contain wheels.

KinderMats must be thrown away if torn or otherwise damaged, as they cannot be properly sanitized. If your child's mat needs to be replaced, we will notify you before we charge your account.

Parents will be notified through the weekly Lil' Conqueror's Corner newsletter if additional supplies are needed throughout the year.
